

Holding This End

Daryl Martin, Director

Thanks for joining with us!

This has been a year of incredible growth for The Second Tunic, and we are grateful to God! It is humbling and exciting to participate in sending and supporting workers in Christian service. Without the strong support of our Board of Directors and the many volunteer hours given by our staff this would not be possible. We are also grateful for those who faithfully give toward the work of The Second Tunic either as support for a specific individual or to the general fund. On behalf of all those receiving support, Thank you!

Thanks for joining with us as we hold this end of the rope for those we support and care for. 🍷

Mary and I will be leading a team to the Philippines October 1-14, 2008. We will serve with Lou and Tanja Velasco who serve in Agdao, a poor section of Davao City. They are supported by The Second Tunic. David, one of the team members, will lead the team home and Mary & I will stay until the 29th to spend time with each of the four families we support in the region.

God's Word

The Gift of Life

by Jermane Cabey

Upon receiving the boxes of newly translated T'Boli Bibles, pastor Dimes broke into a prayer of blessing and thanksgiving. A prayer that God's Word would find fertile soil in the hearts of the T'Boli people and a prayer of thanksgiving for the provision of the Bibles in their native language.

Several years ago we went on outreach to the T'Boli people and got to know pastor Dimes. Over the years our relationship has grown. He recently shared with us how the church is growing and about the need for Bibles. I learned that the translation of the Bible in the T'Boli language had just been completed. I shared of this need in our newsletter and The Second Tunic promptly sent the funds for the 200 Bibles I requested.

Just several days after the official release of the translation, Joel Bringas and I took the Bibles to Pastor Dimes. I wish you could have seen his face, especially when we started to read it in his own language. It was like something got triggered in his heart. He was so excited. I count it a joy and a privilege to have been part of putting God's Word in the hands of the of the T'Boli people. 🍷

Jermane and Ian Cabey and their daughter Anjanique serve in Davao City, Philippines. It is your gifts to the general fund of The Second Tunic that allow us to respond to needs like this.

New Beginnings We are excited to be able to introduce you to the following workers sent out or supported by The Second Tunic. They are serving with various organizations around the world. We desire to send and support people to go and serve with existing ministries.
